Dear Sister Ezell:

The women of this area were delighted at their opportunity to be with you the other Sunday afternoon. I heard many fine comments about the class you taught during our Bible school on Sunday morning. The impressions you created during the afternoon lecture were deep and ourstanding.

I know personally of the influence which you had on so many of our good ladies because of my wife's reaction to the presentation. There is no way to adequately express my personal gratitude. for your tremendous faith and willingness to serve. We all appreciate your deeply and express our gratitude for your coming.

Fraternally yours,
